Thursday 14 March

ECOFeminism Festival & Exhibition
Branches* Opening Party - Free
6 pm - 9 pm, The Art Pavilion

Celebrate and be inspired by nature, women, and their empowering connection through the different Branches of contemporary Ecofeminism.

Friday 15 March

Poetry Open Mic - Free
Facilitated by published poet Charlynne Bryan
7 pm - 8:30 pm, The Art Pavilion

Join us for an evening of powerful Ecopoetry celebrating women and nature! Talented poets and writers take the stage to ignite your passion through the transformative power of poetry and inspire you to make a positive change in the world.

Saturday 16 March

ECOPigments Making Workshop - Tickets £50
Led by Artist & pigment expert Polly Bennett
2:00 pm - 4:00 pm, The Art Pavilion

Discover the art of pigment making using found natural materials to create artist's earth pigments. Learn how to grind & purify earth into mineral pigments transforming them into watercolour paint. You'll gain insights into sustainable methods & historical context when discussing all the materials. All necessary equipment and materials will be provided. Please bring your jam jars with lids.

ECOFeminist Banner Workshop - Free/Drop-in
Led by ART from HEART team
4:30 pm - 5:30 pm, The Art Pavilion

Contribute to the making of an ECO-Feminist Banner in support of gender equality and environmental sustainability. Let's inspire positive change & make our voices heard for a brighter future.

Tides Confused, Ritual Performance - Free
by Elizabeth Salazar, a collab with Las Witchas Latinx Collective 6:30 - 7:30 pm, The Art Pavilion

Experience a powerful ritual performance that inspires us to reflect on water and soil as the foundations for growing crops and feeding ourselves. Be moved by this emotive performance that raises awareness about their scarcity while honouring their importance.

Sunday 17 March

Mothers & Daugthers Bloom Wild Workshop - Free Drop in
Led by artist Sarina Mantle.
2 pm - 4 pm, The Art Pavilion

Learn how to use sustainable materials like flowers, twigs and leaves to create a nature portrait. The workshop focuses on feminine empowerment from mother to daughter & sustainability. All materials used are recycled back to Earth. The art created is experimental & temporary, as nothing is taped or glued in place.

Artists Talks - Free
4:30 pm - 5:30 pm, The Art Pavilion

Meet the Artists in the awe-inspiring exhibition 'Branches' where artworks come to life through the inspiring stories of their talented creators.

Greenhouse Performance - Free
by internationally awarded artists Jordina Ros & Pere Estadella, Ditada Group.
6 pm - 6:30 pm, The Art Pavilion

Participate in a contemporary performance that merges visual & sonic art. Artists undergo a gradual transformation, symbolizing the growth of plants within a greenhouse. Audience participation involves placing plants and seeds, encouraging contemplation on the bond between humanity and nature.

Saturday 23 March

ECOFemme Short Film Festival - Tickets £12
6 pm - 8:30 pm, Screen 2, Genesis Cinema

Experience the power of Ecofeminism through the creative vision of 15 talented UK and International filmmakers. Immerse yourself in a world of Fiction, Experimental, Dance, Animation, Drama, & Documentary short films showcasing the urgency of this vital movement

Screenning Times:
6:00 - 6:45 pm - FEMME FILMS
6:45 - 7:20 pm - ECOLOGY FILMS
7:20 - 8:20 pm - ECOFEMME FILMS
8:20 - 8.30 pm - AWARDS

Bookings required to all events.
All Welcome!

www.artfromheart.co.uk